SURVIVED THE IMPOSSIBLE · EP 02

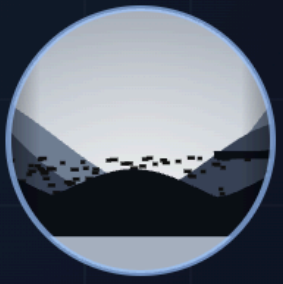

TWO CITIES. THREE DAYS. ONE MAN.

The story of Tsutomu Yamaguchi

HIROSHIMA

NAGASAKI

6 AUG 1945

Hiroshima, 8:15. About 3 km from ground zero. Burned, eardrums burst. He survives the night in a shelter.

7 – 9 AUG

Train home to Nagasaki. Bandaged, he tells his boss one bomb destroyed a city. The second bomb hits mid-sentence.

24 MAR 2009

Officially recognised as a survivor of both bombs, the only person ever so recognised.

He lived to 93 and spoke out against nuclear weapons.

Sources: Wikipedia, NPR (2010), Biography.com, AP (2009)